A Franciscan Parish for 159 years! ~ August 10, 2025 ~ 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Holy Family Parish

"Blessed are those servants whom the Master finds vigilant on his arrival." (Luke 12:36)

Once in St. Luke's Gospel, Jesus asked aloud, "When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" (Luke 18:8). The Lord says in today's Gospel that the "Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour." If the Lord were to come right now, what faith would He find? Would He be able to say to you or to me, "Great is your faith," like He said to the Syro-Phoenician woman in the Gospel (Matthew 15:28)? Or would He say, "O you of little faith?" (Matthew 6:30). The Son of Man is indeed coming and what He wants to find — what He hopes to find — is faith.

Jesus says that the person with faith will be alert for the manifestation of His presence, trusting in the Father's promise of a kingdom. For that reason, she will be working to build up an "unfailing treasure in heaven" and have her heart always "lifted up to the Lord," who is her treasure. The person of faith will be always found "at work," being a trustworthy steward of the Lord's gifts. This faithful disciple will be acting in the Lord's supposed absence just as he would if the Lord were present.

The letter to the Hebrews tells us that "faith is the assurance of what is hoped for and the conviction of things not seen." The faithful person is one who is sure that the promises made by the Lord will be fulfilled. The faithful person is one who is absolutely convinced in the reality of a world that extends far beyond the visible, the reality where the invisible God lives, where heaven is, where grace abides. When confronted with a choice between the tangible, visible, here-and-now material world, and the world of God and trust in His promises, the faithful man or woman always chooses God.

If Jesus were to come right now, would He find this type of faith in the world, in His Church, in you and in me? The Lord promised that when He comes, if He finds His servants "watchful and ready" He would "have them sit down to eat and ... come to serve them." We come to Mass out of faith, with our lamps burning for the Lord's coming, placing all our treasure in Him. The Lord does not let this faith go unrewarded. He comes to us now without delay, "girds Himself with an apron" as He did during the Last Supper, and feeds us with the food of everlasting life.

Please Pray for Sylva Havens

Sylva Havens, Jr., was laid to rest on Saturday, August 9, at Holy Family Cemetery after a Mass of Christian Burial. Please pray for Sylva: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Please pray also for the Lord's consolation for Sylva's family.

~ Fr. John
