Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 13, 2023

I have returned from my vacation with my brother and friend from our trip to the Smoky Mountains and beyond. We marveled at the awesome sights as we drove through the mountains. We visited friends in Ellijay, GA, for a couple days and then drove to Tybee Island and Savannah, GA. I posted lots of pictures on Facebook and Toni chose some for last week's bulletin cover. We hiked in the Smoky Mountains around Robbinsville, NC, as well as in Georgia where we hiked to the beginning of the Appalachian Trail on Springer Mountain. We got caught in a huge downpour on one of our hikes, and came home drenched to the bone after walking in the rain for an hour down a slippery, rocky trail back to our car. On Tybee Island we viewed the lighthouse and spent some time at the seashore walking in the surf, enjoying the sunsets and full moon rises. We also toured parts of historic Savannah and ate at the waterfront. All in all, it was a great vacation with lots of fond memories.

This week's Scriptures again take us to the mountains. In our first reading the Prophet Elijah takes shelter in a mountain cave and experiences God's presence in the tiny whispering sound, not in the powerful wind or terrible earthquake or fire. St. Paul's Letter to the Romans expresses Paul's anguish at the Israelites. Theirs was the adoption, the glory, the Covenant, the Law, the worship, the promises, and the Christ, which many did not accept or embrace. St. Matthew's Gospel again has Jesus on a mountain praying. The disciples are in a boat, miles off shore, being buffeted by the wind and waves, fearing for their lives. Jesus comes to them, walking on the water, offering peace. He invites Peter to come to Him, but Peter's faith falters and he is saved by Jesus' hand as he begins to sink. Then they got into the boat and all did Jesus homage, praising Him as the Son of God. How strong is our faith? Do we need such shows of majesty and power on the part of God and Jesus to strengthen our faith? Do we make use of the opportunities we have to pray and contemplate, to marvel at the wonderful world we live in, with its mountains and valleys and forests and seashores? Let's spend some time in prayer and reflection this week!

On Tuesday, August 15, we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holyday of obligation. We will have a vigil Mass at 7 PM on Monday, and 2 Masses on Tuesday, at 8 AM and 12 Noon. There will also be the Hundredth Anniversary Mass at the grotto of St. Mary's of the Rock at 7 PM. All are invited to these Masses to celebrate our Lady's Assumption into heaven, her special privilege based on the love and merits of her Son Jesus.

Have a Blessed Nineteenth Week and Feast of the Assumption. Fr. Carl

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Gospel Meditation... A man at my parish was struggling to overcome a habitual sin. He said to me, "Father, I know the chance that I will commit sin again is really high. Why should I keep confessing my sins? Isn't that dishonest?" Anyone who has felt the tyrannical power of sin — and who hasn't? — has pondered this kind of question. I responded to him, "What was the probability Peter would walk on the stormy water?" After some silence, he said, "Zero. But when Jesus called, he did it." I could tell my penitent friend was re-framing the question from his own weakness to the greatness of the Lord's love for him. The question for us should not be one of human probabilities about our sin, but rather whether or not we will trust the Lord's grace in our lives. This week the Lord is calling you and me to do the impossible: overcome sin with love. The only way to do that is to trust he is calling, and then to walk with the eyes of faith locked on him. And if we sink, he will raise us up again and again. Of that, we can be 100% sure. — Father John Muir
