Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 3, 2023

I hope we all have survived the ups and downs of late August heat and lack of rain. This week is the beginning of September, with hopefully its cooler days and nights. We celebrate Labor Day on Monday, marking the end of summer! School is in session and our Autumn events have begun.

Our Scriptures this weekend challenge us to respond positively to God's calls and challenges. The Prophet Jeremiah reflects on his call from God to be a prophet, and the difficulties that call has brought him. People mock him, refuse to listen to him, and reproach him. Jeremiah wants to cease being a prophet of God, but his urge to prophesy is too strong, like a fire burning in his heart. In the second reading, St. Paul writes to the Romans, urging them to respond positively to God's call and challenge. They are not to be conformed to the present evil age, but to carry out the will of God as it is revealed to them.

In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus tries to explain to the disciples what will happen to Him in Jerusalem, including his conflict with the scribes and chief priests. He says He will even be put to death and then be raised from the dead. Peter doesn't want to hear about Jesus' coming suffering and death, and denies that it will happen. Jesus says Peter is thinking not as God does, but as humans do, and calls Peter "Satan." Jesus goes on to further explain that His followers must take up their crosses and come after Him. Those who are willing to lose their lives for His sake will find eternal life. Gaining the whole world but forfeiting one's eternal life is useless. All will be blessed according to their conduct.

I forgot a few people in last week's litany of thanksgiving. Today I would like to thank our Finance Commission members for their important work; also the generous gardeners who take care of our flowers and bushes; those who help clean the snow and ice from our sidewalks and parking lot; those who take care of the candles and votive lights in church, our aluminum can crusher, our video streamers, and our Rosary leaders. We friars want to thank our volunteer cooks who keep us well-fed. Finally, thanks to all the regular adorers who come each day to spend time with the Lord Jesus in the monstrance.

Monday of this week is Labor Day, a day to celebrate our nation's hard workers. On Wednesday we begin our religious education year with a Mass and welcome to our students and teachers and staff at 6:30 PM.

Have a Blessed Twenty-Second Week in Ordinary Time. Fr. Carl

HOLY FAMILY PARISH FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL BOOTH CHAIRS

Please call your helpers for your booths and return your lists to Cheryl at the parish office as soon as you can. That way we can try to fill any voids in the schedule. Thank you for your hard work & looking forward to a great festival!

!!! SPREAD THE NEWS !!!

Spread the word about the Holy Family Parish Festival via word of mouth, social media and or grab some flyers from the back of church and/or a sign for your yard. Help us reach everyone we can.

ITEMS FOR PREPARATION

While out shopping and you see a sale on CRISCO, FLOUR or PIE FILLING grab some extra to donate to our festival pie baking elves. Drop off the supplies in the brides room labeled 'festival supplies'.

As the garden is a plenty, remember our PRODUCE BOOTH and consider what goods may fill our shelves.

(i.e. potatoes, veggies, perennials, succulents, homemade canned goods...)

We are looking for some handmade crafted items for the CRAFT BOOTH! Items can be homemade décor, signs, wreaths, ornaments, jewelry, etc.

Please contact Cheryl in the parish office you have items you would like to donate to this booth.

Start thinking about how you can help us fill the BAKERY BOOTH shelves with delicious baked goods. They seem to be the first to empty, so the more we have, the better!!
