Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 10, 2023

I hope you all had a good Labor Day celebration, marking the end of Summer. I remember as a kid asking my Dad if we could have the day off from our home building efforts to celebrate Labor Day. He would say that it is Labor Day, and we should be working on that day, since we all would be back in school in a day or two. As you know, in the good old days, school didn't start until after Labor Day!

This week our Scriptures are all about fraternal correction, trying to help our friends and family to live according to God's teachings. The Prophet Ezekiel reveals that God has appointed him to speak God's word to the Israelites. He is to try to get the wicked to change their ways. It will be a challenge, but God will be pleased if the prophet succeeds in this task. St. Paul, writing to the Romans, takes a different tack. He positively encourages the people to love one another and thus to fulfill all the commandments. All the commandments are summed up in "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus challenges all who have been offended to speak to their brother or sister one-to-one, pointing out the offense. If they don't respond to your efforts, seek a couple other people to support your testimony. If that doesn't work, ask the help of the faith community. Only if that doesn't work, then you can give up and take your efforts elsewhere. We have the power of binding and loosing, but the important thing is to do our best in a gentle and compassionate way. Jesus goes on to say that we can pray for what we need, and Jesus promises to be with those gathered in prayer. So we are challenged to be prayerful, honest and compassionate at the same time. We can condemn the sin but not the sinner. This is a challenge for outspoken people and shy people alike. Following Jesus is not always easy! How can we put this into action this week?

We congratulate Danielle Ann Wilhelm, daughter of Alexander and Bailey (Grieshop) Wilhelm who was Baptized on Saturday, September 2, 2023, at Holy Family Church. May she and her family continue to grow in their love of God and neighbor!

We also congratulate all of our Grandparents on this Grandparents Day! May your efforts and example help lead and guide your family in God's loving ways!

Have a Blessed Twenty-Third Week in Ordinary Time. Fr. Carl

!!! SPREAD THE NEWS !!!

Spread the word about the Holy Family Parish Festival via word of mouth, social media and or grab some flyers from the back of church and/or a sign for your yard. Help us reach everyone we can.

ITEMS FOR PREPARATION

While out shopping and you see a sale on CRISCO, FLOUR or PIE FILLING grab some extra to donate to our festival pie baking elves. Drop off the supplies in the brides room labeled 'festival supplies'.

As the garden is a plenty, remember our PRODUCE BOOTH and consider what goods may fill our shelves.

(i.e. potatoes, veggies, perennials, succulents, homemade canned goods...)

We are looking for some handmade crafted items for the CRAFT BOOTH! Items can be homemade décor, signs, wreaths, ornaments, jewelry, etc.

Please contact Cheryl in the parish office you have items you would like to donate to this booth.

Start thinking about how you can help us fill the BAKERY BOOTH shelves with delicious baked goods. They seem to be the first to empty, so the more we have, the better!!

God Bless Grandparents

Father, Every good and perfect gift comes from You. I thank you, Lord, for the joy and happiness, the moments of learning, and the guidance and care you have brought to us through our wonderful grandparents. I truly appreciate the kind of life, love, and nurturing they have given our parents, for through these, I was taught to depend on You by faith, and I was raised with the morals and values to respect others and be concerned for their welfare. Thank you, Lord, for our godly grandparents. Amen.

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

CLARE AND FRANCIS - This epic feature film on the lives of St. Clare & St. Francis of Assisi was shot on location in Italy by the Italian film company Lux Vide, the producers of Saint Rita, Pope John Paul II, & St. John Bosco. This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story & its authentic spirit of joy & piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare, who is given equal stature with him. The two leads are played by very appealing performers of the daughter of a patrician family & the son of a rich merchant who leave everything to follow Christ. Francis renounces his inheritance of wealth to live the Gospel & serve the poor & outcasts. Clare reads deep into his heart & decides to follow him, leaving her home & family to give herself as a bride of Christ. Both found major religious orders, & together they inspire many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel. Their impact had reached across the centuries to change the world.

YOUTH GROUP SAINTS IN THE MAKING (Jr. High) YOUTH GROUP: Our next Youth Group is Fri., Sept. 15th from 3 – 5 pm @ St. Louis Youth Center.

FRIENDLY REMINDER. Our next Adult Faith Formation meeting will be September 20th.

During this week, take a moment to remember the events and lives lost & affected on 9/11. Take a moment to pray for them and for peace amongst all people. St. Francis provided us with a wonderful prayer to cover it all. Say this prayer in their name and for all around the world!

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
