Holy Family Parish

Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.
(James 2:18)

Christian discipleship is all about becoming more like Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit. As we come increasingly to see and respond to the world the way Jesus does, we find that we are more and more drawn to care for others as Jesus does. On the night before He died, Jesus washed

His disciples' feet and told them – told all of us: love one another as I have loved you. As the song says, “they will know we are Christians by our love.”

This is why Saint James says that our faith – our relationship with Christ – can never be just about us and Jesus. A “faith” that does not expand our circle of care is no faith at all; in fact, it is dead (James 2:17, 26). Jesus says we can know a tree by its fruit (Luke 6:44). Just so, we can know the health of our faith by how concerned we are to help those in need.

There are many kinds of needs of the body and of the soul. To meet them, our Catholic tradition recognizes “corporal” and “spiritual” works of mercy – all derived from Scripture. Saint James encourages us to give witness to our faith through corporal works of mercy: to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit prisoners, bury the dead, or give alms to the poor.

This week, consider how you can live your faith by taking on a corporal work of mercy. It doesn't have to be much, but it will help someone who struggles. We might also want to think in terms of our faith community. In the coming weeks, I'll be asking to hear your ideas for developing a new parish ministry (or maybe more than one!) that reaches out to those in need. So be thinking about that, too.

Please Pray for Michael Eckstein and His Family

One of the spiritual works of mercy is to pray for the living and the dead. On Saturday, we held a memorial Mass for Batesville native Michael Eckstein and laid to rest his ashes in the Oldenburg Cemetery. Please pray for the repose of Michael's soul and for consolation for his family and friends.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

This week we welcomed five brothers and sisters into the OCIA (formerly known as the RCIA). Over the next several months of instruction, prayer, and discernment we will be guiding them toward Baptism or into the full communion of the Catholic Church at Eastertime. You will meet them all soon, but in the meantime please pray for them and for their sponsors.

Parish Festival is October 6!

The parish festival is right around the corner! Not only is the festival fun – and delicious – but it also supports our parish and the many services we provide. We are always in need of volunteers for the festival, so if you would like to help, please call Cheryl at our parish office (812-934-3013) or send her an email (holyfamilycheryl@gmail.com).

Pie Ingredient Staples

While out shopping and you see a sale on PIE FILLING grab some extra to donate to our festival pie baking elves. Drop off the supplies in the brides room labeled 'festival supplies'.

BAKERY Booth Items

Get out your baking pans and favorite baked goods recipes and prepare to help fill our bakery booth shelves. We like all baked goods: breads, pies, cakes of any kind, cupcakes, cookies, rice krispies, brownies, homemade chex mix...the list could go on! Looking forward to the treats for sale to the wanting crowd!

CRAFT Booth Items

We are looking for some handmade crafted items for the Craft Booth! Items can be homemade décor, signs, wreaths, ornaments, jewelry, etc.

Please contact Cheryl in the parish office if you have items you would like to donate to this booth.

Produce Booth Items

Please help us fill our shelves! During harvesting & canning, hold onto some items to share for the produce booth to sell. Canned goods, such as jellies, jams, pickles or maybe a favorite recipe you put in a jar make great items or potatoes, corn, apples, pumpkins, flowers, plants...etc. that you would like to share.

THE MYSTIC NEXT DOOR

Presentation by Ed Jozsa
September 29 3:00pm
St Mary Parish, Greensburg
 Ed Jozsa was the last person to expect a mystical vision, but a near-death experience brought him closer to God than he ever imagined. His experience of miracles, terrifying, and heavenly visions changed his view of life, faith and the hereafter. Hear his story and ask yourself how God may be working through your life or calling out to you.

BUILDING MAINTENANCE

Thanksgiving is right around the corner! Batesville Food Pantry is already preparing Thanksgiving boxes to be distributed at the beginning of November.

Holy Family Parish wants to provide 300 containers of Crunchy Onion Topping (green bean casserole).

On another note...The total number of people helped by the Batesville Food Pantry each month has risen in recent years along with food costs. An average of 230 families representing just over 800 people are assisted each month with healthy food options & personal care items. Nearly 40% of these recipients are infants & children in our community. If you would like to partner with the Food Pantry to continue to provide wholesome foods & basic necessities for our neighbors in need, we would be grateful for your financial donations (mail to P.O. Box 383, Batesville, IN 47006 - donate online at www.batesvillefoodpantry.org).
