Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 15, 2023

Our Scriptures this weekend are linked together by the theme of a banquet. The Prophet Isaiah uses the image to describe how God cares for His people, providing them with rich food and choice wine. God wants the best for His people on the mountain of Zion (Jerusalem), wiping away their tears and destroying death forever. It reminds us of the war going on now between the Palestinian Hamas and the Israelites. Both sides want to exist in peace, but both want the same land as their own. Isaiah says that God will save His people; they (we) just have to look to Him with hope and trust. We must pray for peace & reconciliation between both sides, that is the ultimate meaning of the heavenly banquet. In the second reading St. Paul is reflecting on his life as he is saying farewell to the Philippians from prison. Paul points to his flexibility in terms of living well or humbly, being well fed or going hungry. He goes on to say that God will supply whatever we need as long as we trust in Him and let go of our selfish concerns and desires.

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of a wedding feast that a king gives for his son. When the banquet was ready, those invited refused to come, even after multiple reminders. The servants were mistreated and killed. The people had other priorities—their farms or businesses. (Thus they chose not to come.) So the king invited all other kinds of people to the banquet. Even though the fancy clothes were provided for them, one guest chose to come in to the banquet without the proper wedding garment. God cares very much for all His people and all of creation, but we must choose to accept His invitation. God does not force us to do His will or accept His grace. Jesus died for us, but we must accept His grace on His terms. What choices will you make this week?

Thanks to all who accepted the invitation to be Candidates on our Parish Council ballot later this month. The Parish Council reviewed their statements at our meeting.

We congratulate Stetson Glenn Ludwig, son of Samuel and Gracie (Flaspohler) Ludwig who was Baptized at Holy Family Church on Sunday, October 8, 2023. May he and his family continue to grow in their love and faith in Jesus Christ.

We also congratulate Josh Henderson and Meghan Fullenkamp who exchanged their Marriage Vows on Saturday, October 14, at Holy Family Church. May they know God's love for them as they grow in their love for each other for the rest of their lives.

Have a Blessed Twenty-Eighth Week in Ordinary Time.

Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament at Holy Family encourage all parishioners to join them Monday – Friday anytime from 9am-9pm in the St. Anne’s Chapel. Bring a friend or someone you know and bask in the Lord and grow in His Love for us! Come for the time that works for you. Sit in His Presence with the scheduled adorers. SEEKING ADORERS for FOUR HOURS....Mondays at 4pm. Tuesdays at 9am, Tuesdays at 8pm & Thursdays at 5pm. If you are interested, please contact Dustin Walke at 317-691-5209 or walkedustin@gmail.com Even if unable to cover an hour on a regular basis, we ask that you just join us when you can to adore the Lord in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Consider Pope Francis’s inspiration and thoughts....”Catholics need to recover a sense of awe and adoration before the Eucharist, knowing that it is "the real and loving presence of the Lord," Pope Francis told members of the committees organizing the National Eucharistic Revival and the National Eucharistic Congress in the United States.Pope Francis told the group that, unfortunately, today many Catholics "believe that the Eucharist is more a symbol than the reality of the Lord's presence and love." But, he said, "it is more than a symbol; it is the real and loving presence of the Lord." "It is my hope, then, that the Eucharistic congress will inspire Catholics throughout the country to discover anew the sense of wonder & awe at the Lord's great gift of himself," he said, "and to spend time with him in the celebration of the holy Mass and in personal prayer and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament." - <https://www.usccb.org/news/2023/adore-jesus-real-presence-eucharist-pope-tells-us-catholics> have Jason Evert, one of the most renowned Catholic speakers in the US, coming to the Batesville Deanery on Wed., February 21st, 2024. During the 2nd week of Lent, we can bring out 7th – 12th graders to hear him speak to their hearts about an incredibly important message: Chastity. It is now more than just his traditional talk. This will take place at All Saints – St. Joseph Campus, 7536 Church Lane St. Leon, IN from 6pm-9:30pm with adoration following Jason's talks. The cost is $25 per person. He is a great speaker on the subjects! Please consider registering your children and young adults, plus parents alike. REGISTRATION for tickets opens October 2nd at chastity.com/purified.

Please let Beth Geis know if you are interested.

If you attend this, we can allow it to be class for the evening – if you let me know what is happening.
