Holy Family Parish

Announcing Expansion of Adoration Hours

For several years now we have had Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the St. Anne Chapel Monday through Friday, 9am to 9pm. This has been a great blessing to our parish and to those who spend an hour (or more) each week praying in the Presence of our Lord. This devotion to our Eucharistic Lord is a sign of great faith, hope, and love for God and neighbor. We are grateful to all those who draw down God's grace through their prayer during Adoration.

We believe that it is now time to expand our hours of Adoration. With faith that God provides when we seek to draw closer to Him in prayer, we would like to offer Jesus our Perpetual Adoration, which means around the clock, every day of the week. (Well, almost perpetual, since we do need to use the chapel sometimes during weekend or special Masses.)

This means we will soon have many more opportunities for anyone who wishes to join our group of Adorers to sign up for one hour a week (or more – feel free!) to pray in the Presence of our Lord. This is a great opportunity, but of course also a challenge, because it means we need to have someone in the chapel at (almost) every hour of the week, including late night and early morning.

We would like to start our Perpetual Adoration in early January, but before we begin, we need to make sure someone is scheduled for all or almost all of those hours. So even though we will not begin for several weeks, we are asking those interested in serving our parish by spending one hour or more every week in Adoration to sign of their time slot(s) now.

In the coming weeks you will hear more about Adoration and the blessing it has been for many members of our parish over the last few years. If you are not familiar with Eucharistic Adoration, I encourage you to learn a little bit more about it and give it a try. See inside this week's bulletin for some basic information.

Many blessings come to parishes that have Perpetual Adoration. They typically see an increase in Mass attendance and reception of the Sacraments, the return of fallen-away Catholics and an increase in the number of conversions, as well as an increase in religions and priestly vocations, renewal of Catholic family life, and a greater community spirit, centered as it is on the heart of the parish, Jesus' Presence in the Blessed Sacrament.

Please prayerfully consider signing up for one or more of the new hours available, beginning in January. I especially ask the men of our parish to consider offering an hour of Adoration during the late night or early morning period.

You may have questions before you commit to adding your name to the schedule. Feel free to contact me or Dustin Walke (walkedustin@gmail.com or 317-691-5209). If you want to see available hours and sign up right away, you can scan this QR code. Or, you can call Dustin.

Family Helping Families & the Giving Tree

It's that time of year! The Giving Tree will be up November 14. The first batch of tickets will be for Families Helping Families.

These gifts need to be returned NO LATER than NOVEMBER 30th. Distribution of these gifts will be on December 7th. We do anticipate an increase this year due to the government shutdown.

Holy Family Giving Tree Tags will fill the tree as the Families Helping Families tags thin out. For the Christmas season, Holy Family likes to bring a little holiday cheer to the parishioners that are homebound, in nursing homes, attending college, veterans, serving our country & have lost loved ones this past year.

Thank you to each and everyone for your continued support. It truly takes a village to pull the spread of the Christmas Spirit that we provide.

Thank you to the Holy Family Parish 'Village'...THANK YOU!

The Gospel
in action

Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

"Caring for the poor is not just something nice the Church does; it's a part of who we are and essential to the Church's saving work."

Bishop Jaime Soto, Chairman, CCHD Subcommittee, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

CCHD provides funding to groups whose activities reflect Catholic moral and social teaching on human life and dignity. CCHD-funded groups work to change social structures and policies which undermine life and dignity, especially for the poor and powerless.

CCHD is an example of how the Catholic community reaches out to involve and support people who are poor in acting together to improve their lives, overcome injustice and escape poverty. CCHD is a sign of how the Church lives out the call from Scripture and Tradition to give special concern and priority to the needs of those who are poor and vulnerable.

Protecting Life And Dignity

The Workers' Dignity Project is a worker-led center acting to promote economic justice in the Nashville, TN area. Established in 2010 in response to workplace injustices, the Workers' Dignity Project is a coalition of lay and religious groups that work to prevent wage theft among low-income employees. Workers' Dignity has successfully protected the life and dignity of low-income workers by reclaiming thousands in unpaid wages, collaborating with local students to promote solidarity, and hosting workshops to educate the public about worker rights.

What is the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)?

CCHD is the domestic anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops.

CCHD works with Catholic dioceses and their bishops to award grants to local, low-income community groups working to address the causes of poverty. By helping the poor to participate in the decisions and actions that affect their lives, CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out, helping people and communities overcome injustice, escape poverty and build bridges of solidarity.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Carrying out the mission of Christ to “bring good news to the poor, liberty to captives, new sight to the blind, and to set the downtrodden free” (Luke 4:18)

CCHD also works to educate Catholics about poverty and its causes in our nation and to help the non-poor put into practice the Church’s concern for human life and dignity, the Gospel command to care for “the least of these” (Matthew 25) and the Holy Father’s call to practice solidarity in helping people who are poor help themselves to overcome injustice and escape poverty.

“I commend the bishops of the United States for their wisdom and compassion in establishing the [Catholic] Campaign for Human Development . . . and I thank the whole Catholic community for the generous support given to this initiative during all these years.”

- John Paul II, October 5, 1979, Providence of God Church, Chicago, IL

Protecting Life And Dignity

Action in Montgomery (AIM) is an alliance of 30 congregations and organizations in Montgomery County, MD. AIM provides training and development for leaders so that members can speak to the issues that affect their neighborhoods and daily lives. AIM has worked to protect the life and dignity of all people through education, support for the Maryland Dream Bill Campaign and access to affordable senior housing.

Grounded in Our Catholic Faith

- CCHD was created in response to a mandate from the U.S. Catholic bishops in 1969 to address the root causes of poverty in the United States.
- CCHD provides funding to groups whose activities are consistent with Catholic moral and social teaching and who work to help persons who are poor help themselves.
- More than 683 Catholic priests, 776 Catholic parishes, 18 Catholic Charities agencies, and 51 religious communities are involved in the work of groups around the country that receive funding from CCHD.
- As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, “The Eucharist commits us to the poor” (#1397). The Eucharist, celebrated as a community, teaches us about human dignity, calls us to right relationship with God, ourselves and others and sends us on mission to help transform our communities, neighborhoods and world. The work of CCHD is an example of “Eucharistic” living.

“To love God and neighbor is not something abstract, but profoundly concrete: it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve him concretely. And you are, dear brothers and sisters, the face of Jesus.”

-Pope Francis
