Heaven and earth will pass away.... (Mark 13:30)

Probably the most important secret to living our best life is learning to keep things in perspective. As we go about our days and weeks and years, we can get caught up in a lot of things that in the end are only relatively important – if they are important at all. And we can lose sight of the things that will last forever, the things that are absolutely important.

Jesus reminds us this week that “heaven and earth,” that is, the world as we know it, will one day pass away. It is not ultimate, it is not absolute. And even though he is speaking about the “end of the world” (which seems very far away to us) we all know that one day our lives on earth will come to an end, our own little heaven and earth will pass away. So we need to look carefully at the things we tend to put so much stock in, devote so much time and trouble to, worry so much about, things that will vanish like smoke one day. And we need to recognize that things we often neglect, put off for another day, give little attention to, are the things that will have eternal consequences for us.

What do you devote your energy and time to? Is it to things of no lasting significance, that do little to give true substance to your life, enliven your soul, increase the love in your life? Do you spending meaningless hours on superficial entertainment that does nothing but “kill time”? Do you obsess about politics, what’s happening in the culture, or the ridiculous dramas at work or school? Or do you nurture your most important relationships with family, friends, and God by giving time to them instead of throwing it away on things of no lasting or even temporary value?

Saint Paul tells us that in the end, only faith, hope, and love will remain, and the most important of these is love (1 Corinthians 13:13). Are you giving your heart and soul to growing in love of God and neighbor, or are you spending loads of time on things that have no lasting value? Jesus also reminds us that we know neither the day nor the hour when heaven and earth will pass away for each of us. So now is the time to think seriously about what we will be left with in the end.

Please Pray for Deborah Gates and Her Family

Our sister Deborah Ann (Roa) Gates was laid to rest at Holy Family Cemetery on Friday. Please take a moment to say a prayer for Deborah: Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Please pray also for her husband Paul and for the rest of her family.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This week’s special collection is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). In the United States, over 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and those working on the margins. More information about the CCHD can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Family Helping Families & the Giving Tree

It's that time of year! The Giving Tree is up THIS WEEKEND. The first batch of tickets will be for Families Helping Families. These gifts need to be returned NO LATER than DECEMBER 1st. Distribution of these gifts will be on December 6th. Due to the economy, we are anticipating a huge response this year.

Holy Family Giving Tree Tags will immediately fill the tree as the Families Helping Families tags disappear. For the Christmas season, Holy Family likes to bring a little holiday cheer to the parishioners that are homebound, in nursing homes, attending college, veterans, serving our country and have lost loved ones this past year.

Thank you to each and everyone for your continued support. It truly takes a village to pull the spread of the Christmas Spirit that we provide. Thank you to the Holy Family Parish 'Village'...THANK YOU!
