Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections Passion/Palm Sunday, April 2, 2023

March Madness is over, and the last few basketball games are now history. In a similar way, I suppose, Lent is almost over as we have now reached Holy Week, beginning with Passion/Palm Sunday. Then follows the Chrism Mass on Tuesday at the Cathedral, then Holy Thursday with the foot washing, and Good Friday with its Passion Reading, Veneration of the Cross, and special Petitions. The Easter Vigil is Saturday night, with the lighting of the new fire and Paschal candle, and the Reception, Confirmation and First Communion of our 3 RCIA Candidates. On Easter Sunday we celebrate the glorious Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The Scripture Readings for Palm/Passion Sunday begin with the short Gospel account of Jesus' joyful entrance into Jerusalem and the Blessing of Palms. Then almost immediately the tone becomes very somber as we hear from the Prophet Isaiah one of the Suffering Servant Songs describing his terrible sufferings. St. Paul writes to the Philippians describing the humility of God's Son as he empties himself of his majesty and becomes a human being like us. Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and calls us to confess that, "Jesus is Lord of heaven and earth."

The Gospel is St. Matthew's Passion account of Jesus' celebration of the Last Supper with the institution of the Eucharist from bread and wine, His betrayal by Judas in the garden, the trial by the high priest Caiaphas and then Pontius Pilate, Jesus' condemnation to death, His denial by Peter 3 times, and His scourging and crucifixion. Human that he was, Jesus cries out in desperation, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" A little while later, the centurion proclaims, "Truly, this was the Son of God." Jesus is taken down from the cross and Joseph of Arimathea places Jesus' body in his tomb, with Mary of Magdalene and the other Mary keeping watch. All of this Jesus did for us out of humility and love. Let us grow in our love and humility as we ponder God's great love for us in sending Jesus to be our Savior.

We offer our sympathy and the promise of our prayers to the family of Theresa Ziegler whose funeral was at St. Mary's of the Rock on Tuesday, with her burial at St. Anthony's in Morris.

We congratulate Mia Rose Zernich, daughter of Allen and Megan (Grieshop) Zernich, Baptized at Holy Family Church on Sunday, March 26. May they all continue to grow in love of God and their neighbor and themselves.

Have a Blessed Palm/Passion Sunday and Holy Week! Fr. Carl

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection offers all Catholics around the world an opportunity to express their solidarity with Christians in the Holy Land. A donation to the Holy Father's annual appeal allows the Franciscans to continue to be a light of hope, and a witness to peace in the Holy Land. Gratefully encouraged for your generosity to this collection by Most Reverend Charles C. Thompson.

A Prayer for Holy Week

Dear Lord, your disciple Peter wanted to know who would betray you. You pointed to Judas but a little later also to him. Judas betrayed, Peter denied you. Judas hanged himself, Peter became the apostle whom you made the first among equals. Lord, give me faith, faith in your endless mercy, your boundless forgiveness, your fathomable goodness. Let me not be tempted to think that my sins are too great to be forgiven, too abominable to be touched by your mercy. Let me never run away from you but return to you again & again, asking you to be my Lord, my Shepherd, my Stronghold, and my Refuge. Take me under your wing, O Lord, and let me know that you do not reject me as long as I keep asking you to forgive me. Perhaps my doubt in your forgiveness is a greater sin than the sins I consider too great to be forgiven. Perhaps I make myself too important, too great when I think that I cannot be embraced by you anymore. Lord, look at me, Bless me, Lord, in this Holy Week, & give me the grace to know your loving presence more intimately. Amen.

For over 140 years, the Knights of Columbus has been committed to helping families plan their financial future and achieve economic security, a tradition carried on today through its insurance products. Founded by Father Michael McGivney and inspired by our core principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism, Knights helps to preserve life, protect the family and proclaim the faith for the benefit of our members' families, communities and our world.
