Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Third Sunday of Advent, December 11, 2022

This is the third Sunday of Advent, also known as "Gaudate" or joy Sunday. The birth of the Savior is getting close. Our Scriptures for this weekend are filled with joy and hope, and with emphasis on John the Baptist. The reading from the Prophet Isaiah tells of great hope for the people of Israel because of God's care. Not only is nature glad and celebrating, but also the people will see the splendor and glory of the Lord. Even the weak and handicapped are joyful because the Lord has ransomed them, too, and is bringing them back to Zion (Jerusalem). The Letter of James calls for patience as they await the coming of the Lord. They need to be patient as the farmer is patient waiting for the rains. Nor is complaining or judging about one another allowed. St. Matthew's Gospel focuses on John the Baptist in prison. John sends his disciples to question Jesus, and Jesus points to his healings and preaching as evidence that He is the One to Come. He goes on to praise John as a prophet who has come as a messenger to prepare for the Messiah. Are we praying and preparing as we await the birth of our Savior Jesus?

Thanks to all who supported the Holidays Under the Spires this past Saturday. Thanks also to those who worked hard to prepare for the Saturday celebration at Holy Family, especially Marie Gosmeyer who prepared the roast beef dinners and the Craft Fair. The Knights of St. John provided the breakfast with our own Santa Claus. All of our staff worked hard to decorate the grounds with lights and crib scene. Our local St. Nick made his debut at the Boars Head Pageant along with some other parishioners.

This weekend we are having the annual Second Collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Please be generous toward those many religious sisters and brothers who helped educate and care for many of us and are in need of more resources as they enter their senior years. As you know, the cost of medical care has increased enormously in the past few years, especially for the elderly. Next weekend we will have the Anointing of the Sick at each of our weekend Masses for all who are experiencing the struggles of old age or chronic illnesses. Please come open to receiving the Lord's healing graces.

This is a very busy week with many parish events. On Tuesday evening at 7 pm the Parish Council will have its December meeting in the library. On Wednesday at 6:30 pm in church we will celebrate First Reconciliation with our Second Grade First Communion class. On Thursday evening at 7 PM, Stephanie Pestana will host a free Christmas concert in church with several of her friends. Please come and enjoy their music of the season.

Congratulations to Sage Michael Schutte, son of Austin and Erika (Castillo) Schutte who was Baptized at Holy Family on Dec. 4. May they all grow in their love for God.

Have a Blessed Third Week of Advent! !

The Season That Gives Back - I don't have anything left to give. - You can't pour from an empty cup. - All I do is give. Who is giving to me? - Raise your hand if these thoughts have ever run through your head. I'm sure they occur to all of us from time to time.

We can become so easily depleted by the fast pace of life and whatever vocation God has called us to, whether that's parenthood, a demanding professional career or the caretaking of friends and family (or as so often happens, a hybrid of all three). Many of us also undergo certain seasons — seasons of the year, but also seasons of life — that seem to sap us of energy and leave us totally empty. In these times, it seems impossible to continue in the spirituality of Everyday Stewardship. Graciousness, mindfulness, prayerfulness, gratitude, accountability — maintaining some semblance of these characteristics in our daily life feels not only overly optimistic, but totally impossible. The Church gives us certain liturgical seasons that are meant to fill us up, almost like spiritual pit stops. Advent is one such season, and the Scriptural passages we reflect on at Mass during these four weeks are filled with images of nature defied. We see the dry steppe blooming. We see the weak made firm. We see the frightened made strong. We see the lame walk. We see the Virgin give birth. If you think you don't have anything left to give this Advent, think again. This is the season of miracles when what we thought was depleted brings new life. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Meaning of '12 Days of Christmas'

There is one particular Christmas Carol that has always baffled Will and Guy. What in the world do leaping lords, French hens, swimming swans, and especially the partridge who won't come out of the pear tree have to do with Christmas? We would like to thank a site reader, who emailed us, to let us know the real meaning behind this carol. From 1558 until 1829, Roman Catholics in England were not permitted to practice their faith openly. Someone during that era wrote this carol as a catechism song for young Catholics. It has two levels of meaning: the surface meaning plus a hidden meaning known only to members of their church. Each element in the carol has a code word for a religious reality which the children could remember.

The partridge in a pear tree was Jesus Christ. - Two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments. - Three French hens stood for faith, hope and love. - The four calling birds were the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. - The five golden rings recalled the Torah or Law, the first five books of the Old Testament. The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation. - Seven swans a-swimming represented the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit: Prophecy, Serving, Teaching, Exhortation, Contribution, Leadership, and Mercy. - The eight maids a-milking were the eight beatitudes. - Nine ladies dancing were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self Control. - The ten lords a-leaping were the ten commandments. - The eleven pipers piping stood for the eleven faithful disciples. - The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the twelve points of belief in the Apostles' Creed.

So there is your history for today. This knowledge was shared with us and we found it interesting and enlightening and now I know how that strange song became a Christmas Carol, so pass it on if you wish. (<https://www.funny-jokes.com/funny-religious-christmas-jokes.html>)

Fr. John & His Young Parishioner

It was the Sunday after Christmas at St Peter and Saint Paul's Church in Borden, Kent, England. Father John was looking at the nativity scene prior to packing away the figures when he noticed the baby Jesus was missing from the scene. Immediately, Father John turned towards the vicarage in order to call the police. But as he was about to do so, he saw little Harry with a red wagon, and in the wagon was the figure of the little infant, Jesus. Father John walked up to Harry and said, 'Well, Harry, where did you get the little infant?' Harry replied honestly, 'I took him from the church, Father John.' 'And why did you take him?' With a sheepish smile, Harry said, 'Well, about a week before Christmas I prayed to little Lord Jesus. I told him if he would bring me a red wagon for Christmas, I would give him a ride around the block in it.'
