Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fourth Sunday of Advent, December 18, 2022

This year we have 4 full weeks of Advent, so you still have time to prepare for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ as a helpless little baby. Last week's Scriptures were primarily about John the Baptist preparing the way for Jesus the Messiah. This week's Scriptures focus on Mary and Joseph as they prepare for the birth of Jesus. In the first reading from Isaiah, we hear of the Lord speaking to Ahaz the king. Ahaz refuses to ask for a sign from God about the future of his reign. So Isaiah gives the sign: a virgin shall bear a son and name him Emmanuel (God with us). This prophecy is applied by the Church to Jesus, and is fulfilled through Mary and the Holy Spirit. St. Paul writes to the Romans, explaining how Jesus is a descendant of David, but also the Son of God. This is a great blessing for Gentiles and Jews alike who are called to have faith in Him and become holy. St. Matthew's Gospel gives us the details about Mary's pregnancy and Joseph's concern. We learn that an angel appeared to Joseph and set his mind at ease, because Jesus was conceived in Mary through the Holy Spirit. Joseph is to name him Jesus and He is to save His people because He is the Son of God!

Thanks to all who have so generously donated to our Families Helping Families and our Giving Tree name tags. Your responses have been overwhelming, especially in this year of high inflation, with everything costing more than we expected or bargained for. The committee is especially pleased with your generosity, and I'm sure God is too!

Thanks, also, for your responses to the Retirement Fund for Religious that was collected this past weekend for our many Sisters,

Brothers, and Religious Priests who are retired and in need of expensive medical care. This has surely been a season of giving, as we have been given so many gifts by our loving and merciful God. As we have been told in Scripture, "It is more blessed to give than to receive!"

We want to congratulate all who received the Anointing of the Sick at last week's Masses. With the flu, RSV infections, and the Covid virus still very much active, especially among the elderly, it is important to take advantage of all the opportunities the Church gives us for strength and healing.

We congratulate Jason Leander Gehring, son of Benjamin and Katherine Gehring, who was Baptized here at Holy Family on Saturday, December 17, 2022.

May he and his family grow in their love of the Holy Family.

Our condolences to the families of Francis Flaspohler and Raymond Simmermeyer whose funerals were Saturday, December 10. May they rest in peace.

Have a Blessed Fourth Week of Advent! !

An entire town is wiped out by fire, a tornado rips through several neighborhoods, a bomb claims a maternity hospital and a sudden heart attack takes the life of a soul mate. Life is unpredictable and dramatic. Many buy into the sad illusion that the securities and familiarities we see around us today will remain forever: our homes, our friends, our spouses, our churches, and even our health. We are stunned and shaken by a sudden change, finding ourselves bewildered, mortified, and even embittered. We do not like change, especially change driven by sources beyond our control. Are there any guarantees in life? We often live as if our lives come with lifetime warranties. When they break, they can be fixed or replaced. Such is not the case. Many things are irreplaceable and unable to be fixed. During life's inevitable chaos, God says: "Do not be afraid." Seriously? How can one not be afraid when things are falling apart? Fear is normal and it has a purpose. It is unrealistic, and somewhat unhealthy, to strive to live without any fear. Fear teaches us lessons and can be a catalyst to discovering more profound things. What we do with fear and how we understand it is critical. Fear can either cripple us or move us forward. God does not want fear to cripple us. If we look around at all that can change in our lives and consider what we might have to do, we can easily wallow in the mire of self-misery. Or we can step up to the challenge, as Mary did, and do what needs doing! We can stand tall, as did Joseph, and do the right and just thing! What gives us this courage? Faith. God is with us. This is the focus of our Advent preparations. We need to be reminded that we are not in this alone. God not only made us and loves us, but God keeps us! In the person of Jesus Christ, God is the sign we need to persevere! Do not be afraid and do not be unbelieving! Hold fast to what God has done in giving us His only begotten Son. We do not have to anxiously attempt to control life's unpredictability. God has blessed us with the birth of His Son. Trust that He is with us and will not abandon us, even in death.

The Best Remedy for Anxiety - Most of the time our anxiety stems from a fear of something or someone in the future. The next time it happens to you, try the "Three Ps Remedy":

Prepare-Do what you can now. Simply ponder, What can I do in a proactive way that makes sense? Usually one or two things will occur to you. Do them and watch your anxiety begin to shrink. Present-Live in the present moment, not in the imagined future. Living in the now can help smother the fire of fear. Pray-Know that God is in of control of the future. God has the power and the love to do what we cannot do. Our Father's love can and does shape the future. Pray & experience the peace that will replace the anxiety, because the God who loves you unconditionally is in control now and in the days ahead. Prayer Lord, show me how to prepare, to live in the present moment, and to pray when fear begins to creep in. Amen. -from the book Three Minutes with God: Reflections and Prayers to Encourage, Inspire, and Motivate by Monsignor Frank Bognanno

St. Joseph the Steward - St. Joseph is one of the greatest examples of stewardship we have in the Gospels. Here is a man who understands care and reverence for the property of God, a man chosen to be steward over the very life and breath of God's Son and Spouse. Joseph was mindful. He recognized what belonged to God. When he understood that Mary was to be the mother of God, he was not jealous or bitter. He did not presume to claim ownership over her. Joseph was prayerful. He accepted the opportunity to be in relationship with God, even if it was in a radical and unexpected way. How many of us would trust a crazy dream we have where an angel tells us our fiancée is carrying the Son of God? Well, those of us who are already profoundly connected to God through prayer. Joseph was open to receiving God, and so he was open to the truth in a way many of us would not have been. Joseph was gracious. Even before he had full understanding of the situation, he was unwilling to expose Mary to shame. He did not give himself over to feelings of betrayal. Joseph was committed. He persevered. The Lord had no shortage of strange and even dangerous-sounding tasks for Joseph, but he submitted to each one. Joseph was accountable. When he awoke from his dream, "he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and took his wife into his home." Joseph was a man entrusted with many gifts, and he gave of them wisely. Let us pray that we have the grace to follow in his example. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
