Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Christmas Day, Birth of our Savior, December 25, 2022

A Very Merry and Blessed Christmas to you all! Our Advent preparation is completed, and our Loving Savior is born for all humankind! Jesus comes to us as a helpless little baby born in a stable, a powerful sign of His humility and humanness. We are called to be filled with joy and peace at His coming, welcoming the poor and hungry, just as the innkeeper did for Mary and Joseph. I hope all of you are able to celebrate, even if you have recently lost a loved one. Gathering with family and friends is the best way to support each other and celebrate God's mercy, love, and goodness.

The Scriptures for Christmas Masses give us several options for our Mass readings. I prefer the readings for Midnight, and these are the ones I will reflect on here. The first reading is from the Prophet Isaiah, Chapter 9. It refers to God's giving the people a great light which casts away gloom. The people will rejoice as at harvest time or when war is over. The new-born child will be named Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace, all titles of majesty, goodness, and peace. The Letter to Titus is the source of our second reading. St. Paul describes the grace of God which enables us to live justly, devoutly, and temperately, a fitting description of our Savior Jesus. He is the revelation of God's glory and enables us to do good. Our Gospel from St. Luke gives us the details of Jesus' birth of Mary in Bethlehem, the town of David, Joseph's ancestor. Jesus is born in a stable and laid in a manger. An angel appears to shepherds and gives them the good news about the birth of their savior and where to find Him. Angels appear, praising God and proclaiming, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

I want to again thank everyone who has been so generous to the parish, the friars, and to our many special collections during the past months. Our Campaign for Human Development and our Retirement Fund for Religious collections were very gratifying. The Giving Tree and Families Helping Families also receive a tremendous response. People on the receiving end have expressed much gratitude for their gifts. The Holiday Under the Spires did well, including the Craft Fair, the Roast Beef Dinners, and the Breakfast with Santa. Thanks to all who were involved in planning these events and doing the hard work to make them successful. All in all, it has been a great year, even with the economic issues and inflation that everyone is feeling.

Our sympathy and the promise of our prayers go out to the families of Pam Moorman and Jim Doyle whose funeral Masses have been celebrated recently. May they both rest in peace and may their families be consoled.

Have a Blessed Christmas and a Joyous New Year!

Fr. Carl

Take a moment to give the Holy Family Giving Tree Committee, Carol Dobson, Tina Duncan & Cathy Schene, a pat on the back & wish them a big Merry Christmas & thank you! They spent time and hard work to gather and disperse all the generous donations for the Families Helping Families charity & our own homebound, military, nursing home and members who lost a loved one from Holy Family Giving Tree. Christmas kindness and cheer were spread and enjoyed! The pictures of Santa's helpers during Families helping Families wrapping and delivery party. Oh, what a wonderful time of year!

The Nativity of the Lord

As we age, time seems to pass more quickly. Years seemingly fly by as one holiday flows into the next, January quickly becomes December and life maintains its hectic pace. What do we accomplish in all of that busyness? Perhaps technology is responsible for some of the frenzy, keeping us isolated in our social media worlds, communicating through texts rather than in person, and always connected to world events. We're over stimulated in many ways by information, noise, opinions, & ideologies. Yet, we still find the time to decorate our homes, purchase gifts, and plan Christmas gatherings. We know, however, that the true meaning of Christmas is not found in twinkling lights, beautifully adorned trees, perfectly set tables or exchanged gifts. We are being called to something deeper and more authentic.

Christmas reminds us to look for God along the way of our lives and not get distracted by the illusions around us. Our world's complexity can leave us feeling displaced, desperate, alone, neglected, and unimportant. Joseph and Mary felt that way too. In the midst of all that captures and intrigues us in our self-created virtual worlds, is this longing for the anchor of faith to keep us grounded and make sense of it all. Only faith can give us the perspective to see what truly matters in life. We discover our divinely blessed humanity. The uncertain and challenging journey to Bethlehem gives way to the tender moments of birth & its embrace. Christmas softens us and slows us down a bit. It shows us Jesus as the light who enlightens everyone. It shows us the truth.

The faith that comes from Christmas calms our fears and allows us to go into the nighttime of our lives courageously. We are never lost or alone. We need to stop and savor more of life's moments before they slip away in time. God is with us, loving us, and leading us where we need to be. God is born again and again in every soul willing to give birth to His presence. God connects us and provides us with a place where we feel safe and welcome: home. Merry Christmas! ©LPi

Being the Sign

I think the real challenge of evangelization in the modern age is the reality that pretty much everyone has already heard of Jesus Christ — or, at least, they think they have. To our 21st-century eyes, the angel who shared news of the birth of Jesus with the shepherds had an easy job. All he had to do was announce it. Our baptism compels us to do the same — to announce the coming of Christ over and over again, always and everywhere. But our audience is not a group of illiterate shepherds in ancient Judea. Our audience is a world that has heard so much about Jesus they often claim weariness of his name. So how do we do it? If we walk into a crowd of strangers and tell them we want to talk about Jesus, their reaction will probably be either "I already know about Jesus, thanks," or "I've heard of him, and based on the behavior of those who claim to follow him, I'm really not interested in hearing more." Because in the end, our very lives are how we "announce his salvation" in the present day. We announce it in our actions to strangers. We announce it in our treatment of people who have wronged us. We announce it in our interactions with those who disagree with us. How long had the coming of the Messiah been foretold to the Israelites? So long that, no doubt, many of them despaired of his coming altogether. So, God had to give them a sign: "You will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." Now we are the sign. The world has heard of Christ by now. But have they all seen him? It's our job to show them.— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

BATESVILLE PREGNANCY HOTLINE Did You Know? While population has grown, the world's people have become vastly richer. More people means more wealth for everyone. Greater wealth also leads to greater protection of the environment. We do not have a population problem. We need more babies, not fewer. Batesville has a pregnancy hotline whose mission is to help mothers in difficult situations. If you need help or know a mother needing help, please call 812-934-5116, go to www.batesvillecph.org, or search for Batesville Pregnancy Hotline on Facebook. The hotline can also be reached through Facebook Messenger.
