Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections Second Sunday of Advent, December 4, 2022

Our annual "Holiday Under the Spires" celebration was yesterday, December 3. Hopefully everyone had a good time enjoying Breakfast with Santa, our Craft Fair, the Roast Beef Dinner, the Boars Head pageant, along with all the other events and presentations in our little town of Oldenburg. Our preparations for Christmas should be well underway now, and we can focus more on the religious aspects of Advent. It is a time of quiet anticipation and preparation for the coming of Jesus into our world to be our Lord and Savior. Christmas reminds us of the gifts we have received from our God, as well as the gifts we receive and share with our friends and family. And don't forget the opportunities we have to share generously with the needy through our Giving Tree and Families Helping Families. This week we have our Advent Penance Service on Tuesday in Church at 7 PM, with 3 priests hearing private Confessions.

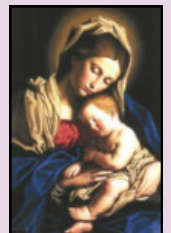

This second week of Advent the Scriptures focus more directly on the coming of Jesus into our world. The Prophet Isaiah describes what the Messiah will be like for us: He will be a descendant of Jesse, and the spirit of the Lord will rest upon Him. He will have wisdom and understanding, strength and knowledge. He will judge the poor with justice and strike down the ruthless. There will be world peace, symbolized by the harmony of natural enemies such as the wolf and the lamb, the kid and the leopard. There shall be no harm or ruin, and even the Gentiles will seek Him out. St. Paul's Letter to the Romans encourages us to have hope and be in harmony with one another. We are to treat each other as Christ did, confirming the promises to the patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and reaching out to the Gentiles as well. St. Matthew's Gospel speaks of John the Baptist and his call for all to repent. He was a true prophet in dress and preaching, calling for all to be baptized with a baptism of repentance in the Jordan River. He was particularly critical of the Scribes and Pharisees, challenging them to produce evidence of their repentance. John predicted that One would come after him who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire, rewarding the good and punishing the bad. How are we preparing for Jesus' coming at Christmas and the end of the world? This Thursday, Dec 8, is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holyday of obligation. We will have a Vigil Mass on Wednesday at 6:30 PM, and Masses on Thursday at 8 AM and 12 noon.

We want to congratulate Westen Michael Luers, son of Derek and Bethany (Anchor) Luers, who was Baptized at Holy Family Church on November 26, 2022, and Scarlett Mae Freese, daughter of Alex and Jillian (Reidy) Freese, Baptized on November 27, 2022. May they and their families continue to grow in their faith and love for Jesus and His Church.

A Prayer for the Second Week of Advent – a Prayer for Peace Heavenly Father, Lord of All, come and fill this world with your peace. May there be an end to hatred and division among your people. Cease all the fighting and war in this world. Heal the bitterness and hurt in my own heart. In this season of Advent, prepare my heart for the coming of Jesus, our Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Fill my heart with your peace which passes all understanding. For of the greatness of his government and peace, there shall be no end. Amen.
