Water for Life

A Grandmother's Warning

Elizabeth sees danger all around as she walks for miles each day to gather water, but she never complains. Instead, the grandmother dedicates herself to raising awareness. She warns of the dangers of walking alone for water and allowing donkeys to contaminate water sources. Of course, to be truly safe, her community needs a well that provides clean water.

Your Lenten alms will help Church missions bring clean water — and hope — to villages in Africa.

Give Today
CrossCatholic.org/Lent

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the blind man: "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" The man recognizes the sign worked by Jesus and he passes from the light of his eyes to the light of faith: "Lord, I believe!" In opposition to the faith of the healed blind man is the hardening of the hearts of the Pharisees, who do not want to accept the miracle because they refuse to receive Jesus as the Messiah. Instead, the crowd pauses to discuss the event and continues to be distant and indifferent. Even the blind man's parents are overcome by the fear of what others might think.

And what attitude to Jesus should we adopt? Because of Adam's sin we too are born "blind," but in the baptismal font we are illumined by the grace of Christ. Sin wounded humanity and destined it to the darkness of death, but the newness of life shines out in Christ. In Him, reinvigorated by the Holy Spirit, we receive the strength to defeat evil and to do good.

In fact, the Christian life is a continuous conformation to Christ, image of the new man, in order to reach full communion with God. The Lord Jesus is the "light of the world" (Jn 8:12), because in Him shines "the knowledge of the glory of God" (2 Cor 4:6) that continues in the complex plot of the story to reveal the meaning of human existence.

In the rite of Baptism, the presentation of the candle lit from the large Paschal candle, a symbol of the Risen Christ, is a sign that helps us to understand what happens in the Sacrament. When our lives are enlightened by the mystery of Christ, we experience the joy of being liberated from all that threatens the full realization of our humanity.

In these days which prepare us for Easter let us rekindle within us the gift received in Baptism, that flame which sometimes risks being extinguished. Let us nourish it with prayer and love for others. Let us entrust our Lenten journey to the Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, so that all may encounter Christ, Savior of the world.

Pope Benedict XVI

BATESVILLE PREGNANCY HOTLINE

Legalizing abortion has done nothing to reduce unwed births, child abuse, or crime. In fact, all have significantly increased. For example, The National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect has demonstrated that child abuse and neglect have increased over 1000% since Roe. Unwed births for black children have skyrocketed to 73%.
