Holy Family Parish

Blessed are you who believed... (Luke 1:45).

Little Mary of Nazareth could probably have been excused for having trouble believing Gabriel's message that she would be the mother of the Messiah. But not only was she "full of grace," she was also full of faith and of hope. Mary knew that with God nothing is impossible, and that God usually chooses the most unlikely ways to carry out His plans. Mary believed that God would be faithful to His people and His promises to give them a Good Shepherd to lead them home to Him.

It can be difficult to trust that God watches out for us all the time and that He has nothing but good intentions for us. Our lives can be very messy and unpretty. They can be marked by serious sin that we cannot or will not give up. They can be colored by failures, disappointments, or betrayals that loom so large over us that we have trouble seeing much good in our lives. On the outside we may seem as if we or our family have it all together, but on the inside, we deal with chaos, frustration, fears, and sorrow. We can wonder how God can be with us in such a mess, or why He doesn't just make it better.

We won't be the first ones or the last ones to ask these questions and possibly be disappointed with the answer. "Have faith" can seem like a hollow response when we're struggling. But thousands of years of experience and God's revelation of His mercy and love in His Son have shown that God can and does make good things come even from the worst circumstances. And He does recreate our hearts and our world in surprising ways.

But we do need to have faith enough to draw close to God in our troubles. Often what God does for us goes beyond the problems themselves to work on our hearts so that our troubles bear fruit for eternity. We can develop more compassion for others who also struggle. We can become less self-centered and more generous toward others. Our obvious need for God can lead to greater humility, less self-righteousness, or heal impatience or a critical spirit. God can do many good things with our troubles without making them just go away. May He give you faith and strength to hang in there while He does that.

Please Pray for the Family of Dale Parmer

On Friday, December 13, our brother Dale Parmer was laid to rest at Holy Family Cemetery. Please take a moment to pray for Dale: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Please pray also that the Lord will console his family and friends who will miss him.
