Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 28, 2024

On this Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the Lord and His prophets and disciples speaking to us. In the first reading from the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses describes the process of how the Lord raises up a prophet for the people. It goes on to give a sort of job description for the prophet. He is to speak God's word and they are to listen to him. If anyone doesn't listen to him, or if the "prophet" speaks false words, they shall be punished. St. Paul writes to the Corinthians about how they are to live as believers. Unmarried people are to be busy about the things of the Lord. But married people are to be occupied with pleasing their spouses and then spending time for the Lord's business. St. Paul says he is telling them this advice, not as a restraint, but for their own good as believers.

In St. Mark's Gospel we hear about Jesus' preaching in Capernaum's synagogue. Jesus taught with authority, unlike the religious leaders of that day. Jesus goes on to heal a man with an unclean spirit who shouts against Jesus, recognizing Him as 'the Holy One of God.' Jesus responds by driving out the evil spirit and quieting him. Again the people are amazed by Jesus' speaking & teaching with authority, and as a result His fame spreads throughout Galilee. How do we respond to the many challenges of our day? Do we have our priorities straight? Do we put God & the things of God first in our daily lives, while at the same time taking care of all our other responsibilities? What do we need to do differently this week to respond to God's call?

This weekend we will hear from James Dickey about the E-6 Men's Conference at East Central High School on Saturday, February 17. Please listen to what he has to say. That event is the Saturday after Ash Wednesday.

This week is also Catholic Schools Week. Our Holy Family Parish students are welcome to attend St. Louis School at the same tuition rate as St. Louis students. We may have lectors from St. Louis school doing the readings at this weekend's Masses.

This week our faithful mock-turtle soup preparers will be hard at work making several batches of our famous mock-turtle soup as a fund raiser for our religious education program. The finished soup will be available for purchase on Thursday, February 1. Please be generous in supporting this annual fund raiser.

We're sorry to announce that Jerry Lamping passed away on Saturday, January 20, and his funeral Mass was celebrated on Thurs., January 25 at 10 AM.

A Blessed Fourth Week of Ordinary Time to all!
