Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, January 1, 2023

Happy New Year, everyone! I hope your Christmas celebrations went well, with lots of presents, food and drink, hilarity and good visits with family and friends! Since I'm writing this reflection 12 days in advance, I can't comment on the weather! Hopefully it is better than what the prognosticators were predicting for Christmas Eve! We'll just have to wait and see in both cases. In any case, our loving God is blessing us.

Our Scripture readings for this Sunday are filled with joy and hope. Numbers gives us the special blessing of the Lord to Moses for the Israelites and for all of us: "The Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!" St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians summarizes God's gracious gift to the whole world, His Son Jesus, who makes us God's adopted children. We receive God's Spirit in our hearts, so we can cry out "Abba, Father!" The Gospel of Luke tells about the shepherds' visit to Bethlehem, to Mary and Joseph, and Jesus in the manger. They make known the message they received from the angels. Mary reflected on this good news in her heart. And Jesus was circumcised on the 8th day and given his name Jesus, meaning "One who Saves!" As we begin this new year, we have so much to be thankful for and to celebrate: especially Emmanuel, God with us! Behold, Our Savior for whom we waited, is born!

Thanks to all who so generously gifted us with food and drink and lots of goodies, as well as your monetary donations and gifts for the needy! You all are so good to the parish, the staff who work here, the friars, the food pantry, the Giving Tree, Families Helping Families, Safe Passage, and the many second collections. We are truly blessed!

Thanks to all of our musicians and choir members for your special gifts of music to enhance our celebrations. Our worship would be seriously lacking if we didn't have music to help us celebrate. Thanks to all of our liturgical ministers, our lectors, ushers, Eucharistic ministers, sacristans, servers, greeters, and all who participate in our worship. By our full, active, and conscious participation in our worship services, our Masses, Baptisms, and Funerals, we make know to God our gratitude for all we receive.

Congratulations to Madeline Lambert and Tyler Stafford who were married on New Year's Eve, and to Lawson Cole Cost, son of Rodney and Kirsten Cost who is our first Baptism of the New Year. May they all grow in knowledge and experience of God's love and their love for each other.

May the New Year bring you happiness, peace, and prosperity.
Wishing you a joyous 2023!

Happy Octave of the Nativity, and Mary Mother of God!

Fr. Carl

Listen. Think. Act. That is a mantra or slogan for many different groups. Some seek to battle prejudice and bias. Other groups hope to eliminate poverty or reduce crime. I have even found some companies use it as a way of increasing engagement among their employees. In a nutshell, it is about taking in what you have heard and then reflecting on it before you act. The most fruitful actions are those that take place after careful reflection. This is an important thing to remember for those trying to live a stewardship way of life. If we are honest with ourselves, too often most of us jump to conclusions too quickly or act in ways that cause friction because we didn't really think about the consequences of our actions. We are moving too fast in a world that seems to be moving ever faster. When the shepherds came to visit Jesus, the newborn King, they told Mary everything that the angels had told them. Luke tells us that after hearing all this, she "kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart." No response. No panic. No action. Her reflection was the appropriate response. In this New Year, you and I would do well to remember this Gospel account of Mary, the Mother of God. Let us resolve to listen more, reflect often, and then act accordingly. We are called to use our gifts wisely, sowing them in good soil. If we just throw them out, allowing them to simply fall wherever they may, have we really used them for God's glory? We need to listen. Think. Then act.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

She Kept All of These Things in Her Heart "What was my first word? Who was there when I was born? When did I start to walk? Which toys did I play with? What made me cry when I was a baby?" My oldest has reached the age where she has started to ask questions like this. As she grows up, she is realizing that, in order to understand the world around her, she must first understand herself. This makes her insatiably curious about her own identity, her history — her "origin story," as they say in the movies. I've got most of it documented either in writing or in photos, but even if it's a detail that wasn't scribbled in a baby book or saved to my digital cloud, it's a memory that I can quickly summon and make real for her as we snuggle and talk about who she was, who she is, and who she may become. I'm the mom. I have kept all of these things in my heart. The Blessed Mother knew more about God before opening a book than most of us could discover after a lifetime of study and prayer. There is no one whose knowledge of Christ was so intimate, so deep, so simultaneously ordinary and extraordinary, as the human woman who bore him, birthed him, nursed him, raised him and eventually gave him up. In the way that I can tell my daughter everything there is to know about the part of her life she cannot recall, Mary can tell us everything we need to know about Christ. All we have to do is ask.

Mary kept all of these things in her heart. — Luke 2:19 By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The shepherds returned from Bethlehem "glorifying and praising God." They were affected deeply by the sight of the infant Messiah and the message of the angels. What would the world look like, if we allowed ourselves to be likewise impacted by the word of God?
