Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 22, 2023

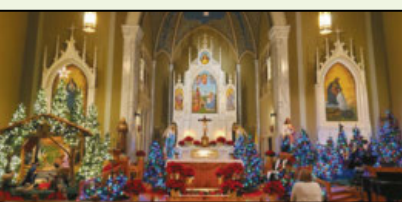

This weekend we are asked to pray for the protection and support of women who are pregnant, and for their unborn children. The Respect Life movement is alive and well in our country, even after Roe vs Wade was reversed. Women still need help with their problem pregnancies, and the Christian community is challenged to make all life a priority, from womb to tomb, including the elderly, prisoners, refugees, and immigrants.

We are also in the midst of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, which runs from January 18 to January 25. Christ prays that we may all become one, unified in our desire for unity, not necessarily uniformity. Please pray for unity among all Christians.

Our Scriptures again this weekend come from the Prophet Isaiah, St. Paul, and St. Matthew. Isaiah reviews the Israelites' struggle to be faithful to the Covenant. He says that the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. God has brought them great joy by smashing the yoke that burdened them, their sins and selfishness. St. Paul urges the Corinthians to be united without any divisions or rivalries. All belong to Christ and Christ is not divided. Christ was crucified for all and sent Paul to preach the Gospel to all, Jews and Gentiles. Matthew tells us that after John the Baptist was imprisoned, Jesus went to live in Capernaum to fulfill what we heard from Isaiah in the first reading: "the people who walk in darkness have seen a great light." Jesus, the light, is preaching repentance to prepare for God's Kingdom. He also invites Peter and Andrew, James and John, to become his disciples. They leave their boats and nets to become "fishers of men." How are we following Jesus' call to us at this time?

Thanks to Julie Eckstein and her many helpers who decorated the Church for our Christmas celebrations with the many lighted trees and the beautiful crèche scene. This past week they took down all the Christmas trees and lights and the crèche and statues. We appreciate and thank them for their work for us at Holy Family Church, as in past years.

This past weekend we had several Baptisms. Emmeline Joan Wedgewood, daughter of Justin and Jessica (Williams) Wedgewood, was Baptized on Saturday the 14th. On Sunday after the 8 AM Mass, I baptized Lincoln Joseph Brasier, son of Tony and Michaela (Turner) Lecher. I also Baptized the brothers Ross Payne and Luka Paul Schuerman, sons of Ross Schuerman and Daniele Marie Nicholas. Finally, I Baptized August Charles and Noah Daniel Moorman, sons of James and Rachel (Meyer) Moorman. May they all grow in their love of Jesus and His Church!

We extend our sympathy to the family of Dorothy (Toots) Enneking, who was buried on Saturday at Holy Family Church and cemetery. Please keep her family in your prayers. May she rest in peace, and may her family be consoled.

Have a Blessed Third Week in Ordinary Time!
