Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 29, 2023

We're having a real winter snowfall or two this week, as we look forward to the Superbowl and the games leading up to it. The contestants have yet to be decided, so there's lots of anticipation in the air! The Bengals won their game against Buffalo this past Sunday, so they will be playing Kansas City this Sunday for the AFC championship. Also, this week the Turtle Soup makers will be hard at work, preparing for the winter fund raiser for our Religious Education Programs. Please help support our programs by buying some delicious Mock-Turtle Soup when it is ready on Thursday!

In our Scriptures, the Prophet Zephaniah speaks to us about the "remnant" that will remain faithful to God's Covenant when the Israelites are conquered by their enemies. They are encouraged to continue to observe God's law, even if difficult. St. Paul reminds the Corinthians that God chooses ordinary people to shame the wise and strong in regard to fidelity to Christ Jesus' teaching and example. "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord." St. Matthew's Gospel gives us the Beatitudes, the first part of his Sermon on the Mount. Some people call the Beatitudes a "job description" or "blueprint" for Christians. How seriously do we take these challenges to our behavior and attitudes about living our Christian lives according to Jesus' ideals?

Thanks to Carol Dobson who spoke at all the Masses this past weekend to alert us to the new committee she and Tina Duncan and Cathy Schene are organizing: "The Holy Family Parish Caring Committee." She also summarized the many Giving Tree donations and Families Helping Families gifts that were distributed to many different groups of parishioners and local people at Christmas time. Your generosity in supporting these efforts was amazing and most appreciated.

Thanks also to the people who participated in the Rosary and Mass on Monday morning, supporting the Respect Life Movement on the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade. Opposition to abortion continues to be an important movement in our country.

We have arranged to have a Parish Mission during Lent this year. Fr. Charlie Smiech, OFM., will be the preacher, and the Mission dates will be March 20 to 22, with talks at 10 AM and 7 PM each day. Fr. Charlie will also preach at all parish Masses on the weekend of March 18 and 19. Please mark your calendars for this special event.

We congratulate Nathan Samuel Hunter, son of Jason and Katelyn (Schoetmer) Hunter, who was Baptized at Holy Family Church this past weekend. May he and his family continue to grow in their love for God and His Church.

Have a Blessed Fourth Week in Ordinary Time!

Reviewing the teachings & Miracles of Jesus will strengthen us on our spiritual pilgrimage & bless our relationship with one another. We hope that you can join us with your family members & friends as we seek purification, & enrichment for our soul.
