Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections Feast of the Epiphany, January 8, 2023

I hope everyone had a good New Year's celebration last weekend, and are now into the new year with hope and optimism. If you haven't made your New Year's Resolutions, how about deciding what your guiding values are as a Catholic, and figuring out how to live them more consciously and intentionally. Spend some time reflecting on your gifts, talents, aspirations, and challenges, and thus get in touch with your inner self as we begin this new year of 2023. That way you can work toward becoming the "best version of yourself."

This weekend we are celebrating the Epiphany of the Lord, the revelation of Jesus our Savior to the whole world, represented by the three Magi or Wise Men. Last week we celebrated the revelation of Jesus to the shepherds, representing the simple and ordinary people of Jesus' time. This week the Magi represent all the nations of the world, far and wide. Our first reading is from the Prophet Isaiah who is celebrating the splendor of Jerusalem after the Israelites return there from exile in Babylon some 500 years before the time of Christ. He speaks in glowing terms about all that is going on in the city, and how all nations will be blessed. The wealth of nations will be brought to Jerusalem and its people by caravans from afar, bearing gold and frankincense, and praising the Lord. Our second reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians. He reflects on his life and history, especially that he was called to evangelize the Gentiles and to reveal that they, too, are coheirs and copartners in the promise of Christ Jesus. In the Gospel, St. Matthew tells us about the Magi from the east coming to Jerusalem looking for the newborn King of the Jews. King Herod was immediately threatened and troubled, and wondered where this Messiah was born. His advisers tell him that it is in Bethlehem. Herod tells the Magi to let him know, once they find the new King. The Magi bring their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to Jesus, but a dream tells them to go home by a different way and not tell Herod. What gifts do we bring to Jesus?

On this past Thursday was the funeral for Pope Emeritus Benedict the 16th in Vatican City, with Pope Francis as the presider and preacher. This papal funeral was unprecedented, with the sitting Pope celebrating the life of the former Pope who resigned some 10 years ago. On this Monday we will celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, the official end of the Christmas season. On Tuesday we will have the monthly Parish Council meeting. Thanks to all our parishioners who so generously donated to our Christmas and New Year's collections, as well as throughout the past year. May you all be blessed by our loving Lord during 2023!

Criterion News Paper is the weekly Catholic News paper delivered to your home. The Archdiocese of Indianapolis wants every parishioner to have the opportunity to receive this Catholic newspaper. The cost to Holy Family to provide this paper is $722 per month, which is a sizable amount out of our Budget. If each parishioner could pay the subscription cost of $16/year, this would help out tremendously! Envelopes for this can be found in your weekly contribution packets. THANK YOU.
