Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 16, 2023

As you are reading my thoughts and reflections today, you know that the annual celebration of Freudenfest is in full swing or has successfully concluded once again. Hopefully the weather cooperated and all went well for the town, the workers, and all the loyal participants. Now we can move on to the next big event, our annual Rummage Sale on July 21-23. As in the past, we will have a huge number of items available for your pleasure and purchase in our school building. The Rummage Sale committee will not only appreciate your patronage, but also your help with the set-up, July 16 to July 20, as last week's bulletin insert indicated.

Today, as we celebrate the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we are treated to a reading from Isaiah 55, celebrating God's care for the earth and its crops, and also His powerful word which achieves His will and purpose for His people. St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, Chapter 8, reminds us that our sufferings, painful as they may be, are nothing in comparison to the glory that awaits us in eternity. In Jesus and His Spirit, Creation will be set free from slavery, corruption and sin, and we will share in the glorious freedom of God's children. All this will be the result of the Spirit's accomplishment, our redemption. St. Matthew's Gospel, Chapter 13, gives us Jesus' parable about the sower and the seed. In Jesus' time the farmers scattered the seed willy-nilly over the land. It landed on various types of soil, symbolic of the various kinds of people hearing God's word. Some are more receptive than others, and the seed produces varying amounts of fruit. We are called to be the rich soil that receives the seed of God's word and produces a great harvest. Jesus speaks to us in the form of parables, challenging us to not only hear, but to really listen to His words. We are called to understand with our hearts and thus be converted from our sinful ways. May our ears and hearts be opened that we may grow in our understanding and acceptance of God's merciful love.

Don't forget about our Vacation Bible School coming up on July 24 to 27, Monday thru Thursday, 5:30 pm to 8 pm. Registration options are spelled out in this week's bulletin. Thanks to all our volunteer teachers and aides and participants.

We congratulate Brooks Michael Kreuzman, son of Kevin and Sidney (Mumma) Kreuzman, Baptized at Holy Family Church on Saturday, July 8. May he and his family continue to grow in their love for Jesus and the Catholic Church.

Have a Blessed Fifteenth Week in Ordinary Time.
