Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 9, 2023

I hope you all had a very enjoyable and safe Fourth of July holiday! I am writing this reflection on June 29, 10 days in advance, because of the July Fourth holiday. Our bulletin printers like to have a holiday off from work, so they print our bulletin a few days early. It is too soon to tell what the weather will be like, after a weekend predicted to be quite stormy. Whatever rain we get will be most welcome by the farmers and gardeners like me. The end of this week we celebrate our annual Freudenfest, so we have a lot of festivities to look forward to.

Our Scriptures for this 14th Sunday invite us to celebrate God's goodness and care as reasons for our joy. The prophet Zechariah calls Israel to rejoice at the coming of their savior king. He will do away with war and proclaim peace to all the earth. He is a preview of the Messiah to come. St. Paul reminds the Romans that the Spirit of God dwells in them. Therefore they, and we, are to live according to the Spirit, because the One who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in us who believe. This is truly a cause for joy. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus praises the Father for revealing to the little ones God's love and mercy. They know the Father because Jesus has revealed Him to them. Jesus gives them rest and shares His yoke with them; it is easy and light. We are not alone in dealing with our pains and struggles, losses and fears. Jesus is right here with us, sharing our burdens, helping us carry our yoke. Do we consciously seek Jesus' help? Our daily prayer calls us to trust in Jesus' love and care for all of us!

Our Director of Religious Education, Beth Geis, will join some of our students and those of nearby parishes on their Mission Trip to Grand Rapids, MI. They will be gone from July 9 to July 15, to help repair and paint the homes of some of the poor and needy of that area. Please keep them in your prayers for a safe trip.

The last day for bringing your donations for our Rummage Sale is Tuesday, July 11, from 6 to 7:30 pm. The actual Rummage Sale is July 21 to 23, Friday to Sunday. Thanks to all the volunteers who have been working for weeks to sort and prepare everything for this annual sale that supports our Religious Ed Program.

We offer our sympathy and the promise of our prayers to the family of Kathleen Jones, whose funeral Mass was on Friday, June 30, and her burial was in our parish cemetery. May she rest in peace and may her family and friends be consoled.

Have a Blessed Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time.

Fr. Carl

The Choice is Yours!

Did you hear the great news? Our Indiana legislators expanded the Choice Scholarship Income Guidelines! Under the new guidelines it is estimated that almost 97% of all Hoosiers would qualify for this scholarship. They also did away with the pathways needed to qualify. Look at the chart to see if you qualify: Your K-8 child's scholarship for a Catholic education awaits! Contact Mrs. Patty Mauer at pmauer@st.louischool.org for more details. Lessons for a Lifetime: We live for Jesus. We love others. We learn.

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails & sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke. I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together." But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless. It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh. No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism. "Brothers & sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh." — Romans 8:12

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out. Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek & humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity. The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest."

We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest. — Father John Muir

MOVIES: THE SANCTUARY COURSE FOR

CATHOLICS One in four people will be affected by a mental health problem at some point in their lives, yet the stigma surrounding mental illness silences many and prevents faith Communities from responding Compassionately and effectively. This 8-session course – explored the realities of mental health and illness, as well as the viral need for faith-based community conversations about these topics. The sessions are accompanied by compelling films that feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists. The course also includes a Leaders Guide, Participant's Guide, and additional and spiritual resources. WARNING: This course and films address difficult and sensitive topics, and may not be appropriate for a young audience. Parental guidance is advised.

For over 140 years, the Knights of Columbus has been committed to helping families plan their financial future and achieve economic security, a tradition carried on today through its insurance products. Founded by Father Michael McGivney and inspired by our core principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism, Knights helps to preserve life, protect the family and proclaim the faith for the benefit of our members' families, communities and our world.
