SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Saturdays from 4:30pm - 5pm

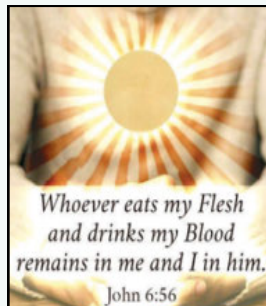

Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Fifth Sunday of Easter, May 7, 2023

At our recent Spring Business Meeting for Pastors and Parish Life Coordinators, we were reminded of the National Eucharistic Congress that is being planned for Indianapolis for July 17-21, 2024. 80,000 people are expected to attend. It will be the culmination of a 3 year process that is now in its first year for all the dioceses of the United States. It is an effort on the part of all the bishops to renew our awareness of and commitment to the reality of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

In simple terms, too many Catholics have become lax in their devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist, both at Mass and in the Tabernacle. We are being encouraged to renew this central belief by deepening our understanding of this great gift that Jesus gave us at the Last Supper when he took the bread and wine and proclaimed, "This is my Body; this is my Blood. Take and eat; take and drink; do this in memory of Me!"

As I announced last week, we will once again be offering the Consecrated Blood at all our Masses, beginning on Mothers' Day, May 14. Another way we will be promoting devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist will be our annual Corpus Christi Procession on Sunday, June 11, the Feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus. Please plan to participate in this devotion.

We will also make the Eucharist the topic of our Adult Faith Formation series later this year, as well a main homily topic at our Sunday and weekday Masses. The Criterion, our diocesan Catholic paper, will also be running an educational series on the National Eucharistic Congress in the weeks to come. Please be alert to these opportunities for growing in our faith and understanding of the Eucharist and its grace in our daily lives. Again we invite volunteers to prepare to be Eucharist Ministers at the workshop on May 11, starting at 6:30 PM and lasting about an hour.

Our Scriptures for this 5th Sunday of Easter speak to us about the concrete issues of being followers of Jesus. The Acts reading tells about the efforts of the early Church to minister to the Greek speaking widows. Seven deacons were appointed to care for their needs in the daily distribution of food. The First Letter of Peter encourages believers to be built into a spiritual house to offer sacrifices through Jesus Christ. We are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of His own" to announce His praises. We are called out of darkness into light by Jesus. In John's Gospel, Jesus reassures us that in God's house there are many dwelling places, so we should not be troubled. Jesus will come back to take us to Himself. He is "the way, the truth, and the life." It is through Jesus that we are able to go to our Father in heaven. The Father is in Jesus, and Jesus is in the Father, and thus in following the example of Jesus we do the works of the Father.

A Blessed and Glorious Fifth Sunday of Easter!

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

The Legends of ROBIN HOOD (Audio Book): Hero.

Outlaw. Faithful. Rogue. Champion. Vigilante. The child of a reputable family and a faithful son of the Church, Robert of Locksley had no intention of becoming an outlaw. But the relentless cruelty and tyranny by the elite nobility of England demanded that someone rise up to give an answer. And so Robert of Locksley became Robin Hood – a man thrown into a fierce struggle to balance his deep faith with a call to action in a violent age. Featuring over 60 actors, cinematic sound, and original music, The Legends of Robin Hood is an exciting 12-part audio drama from the award-winning Augustine Institute. Bold and inspiring, the Augustine Institute's audio drama takes storytelling to a whole new level of sound that quickens the imagination and inspires the heart.

BATESVILLE
PREGNANCY HOTLINE

Did You Know? The Dobbs decision does not outlaw abortion. It simply returns the issue to our elected state representatives. This is more in keeping with the democratic process than allowing an unelected court to take decisions away from the people and the states. If you need help or know a mother needing help, please call 812-934-5116, go to www.batesvillecph.org, or search for Batesville Pregnancy Hotline on Facebook.
