Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 6, 2022

Our Scriptures for this weekend speak to us about the experiences of 7 brothers. The Second Book of Maccabees recounts the courage of the 7 brothers who were martyred rather than eat pork against the Jewish law. They were ready to die, rather than transgress the laws of their ancestors. They died demonstrating their hope of being raised up by God. St. Paul writes to the Thessalonians encouraging them to be faithful in word and deed. He also asks for their prayers, to be delivered from perverse and wicked people who lack faith. He expresses his faith in the Lord's protection. St. Luke's Gospel tells the story of some Sadducees who challenge Jesus with the bizarre example of 7 brothers who were all married in succession to the same woman, but who each died childless. They wondered who she would be married to after the resurrection. He says that in the age to come, there will be no marrying or giving in marriage. They will be like angels, because God is a God of the living, not of the dead. How do we understand what eternal life will be like for us if we remain faithful to our loving God?

I hope you all enjoyed All Hallows Eve (Halloween). Hopefully this celebration helped us prepare for All Saints Day and All Souls Day. During this first week of November and throughout the month, we remember those who have gone before us in the faith, celebrating their commitment to follow Jesus' teaching and example. We pray for our deceased, that they may enjoy everlasting life with our loving God.

This coming Tuesday, November 8, is Election Day. We are all encouraged to exercise our civic duty to vote according to our Christian consciences for the most fitting candidates, not simply because of their party affiliation. No candidate or party is perfect, so we need to examine their records and principles and have the good of the community, especially the poor and suffering, in mind when we vote.

Our Parish Council will also meet this Tuesday, November 8 at 7 PM. We will welcome our newly elected members and discuss the needs of the parish for the coming year. We will also choose our new officers for the coming year.

Congratulations to those Baptized this past weekend: Carson Andrew Kruthaupt, son of Andrew and Amanda Kruthaupt; Luke Edward Kurtz, son of Thomas and Brittany Kurtz; and cousin Reid Benjamin Pierson, son of Caleb and Tiffany Pierson. May they and their families all grow in their love of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!

Have a Blessed and Holy Thirty-Second Week in Ordinary Time Fr. Carl

Cost: $80 (includes light breakfast & lunch) Twentieth century science ushered in a new understanding of cosmos, matter and the way human life progresses through stages of complexity and consciousness. In this workshop, we will explore some of the key insights of science and examine their implications for a new understanding of Christ in evolution. Drawing on the insights of Teilhard, the notion of Christogenesis will be illuminated as the emergence of God, the significance of human life in the completion of God, and the complexifying divine-human relationship as the rise of the Christic.

TAKE A MOMENT OF PRAYER FOR OUR VETERANS

THIS NOVEMBER 11: ★ Father, please turn your gaze to those men & women who in their military service have sacrificed time, comfort, strength, ambition, health & prosperity for the peace & safety of family & friends & others they've never even known. Please reward them a hundredfold for all their sacrifice & service. Bless them far beyond all their expectations. Reward them richly for all they have given.
★ Almighty God, You know every veteran by name. You know their deeds, their hard work, & their perseverance. You know their needs, both material & spiritual. Please draw each one closer to you and grant them all the peace that passes understanding (Philippians 4:7), the peace of Christ to rule in their hearts (Colossians 3:15), and 'joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand' forevermore (Psalm 16:11)."

TAKE NOTE:

Since Thanksgiving is fast approaching, we have early bulletin submission dates: Sunday, November 20 submits November 11 & Sunday, November 27 is November 17. Please send any info you would like listed in the bulletin by those dates. Thank you!
