Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 16, 2022

It's hard for me to believe, but Fall Break is over already. I hope you students and parents and teachers enjoyed this time off from school. Now it's time to get geared up for the next couple months leading up to the Christmas break. If the past weeks were busy ones, I'm sure the next weeks will be even busier as we prepare to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas as it is more commonly known. The season of Advent, our quiet time of reflection on God's great love for us in sending His Son Jesus, begins on the weekend immediately after our Thanksgiving celebrations.

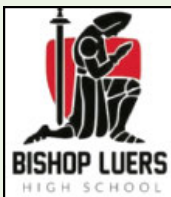

This weekend's Scriptures speak to us of the importance of our ongoing prayer to God. Our reading from Exodus tells of Moses praying for military success for the Israelite army. While Aaron & Hur supported Moses' upraised arms in prayer, Joshua's army mowed down the enemy Amalek & his pagan army. St. Paul writes to Timothy about the importance of reading and studying the Scriptures. He reminds Timothy and us that "All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness." In St. Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells another parable about the necessity to pray always. He speaks about a widow challenging an unjust judge by her persistence & finally winning her case. In the same way, God will secure the rights of His chosen who call out to Him day & night. Do we also pray with such dedication & persistence & faith?

Please remember that our Parish Council elections are coming up this month. We will have a number of candidates for you to consider, as you prepare to vote for 4 new members to serve 3 years on the Parish Council. Please pray to the Spirit for insight and guidance, that our new Parish Council will continue to serve our parish's needs with commitment and generosity.

I will be gone to Ft. Wayne this weekend to celebrate the 50th Anniversary and Reunion of the class of 1970 from Bishop Luers High School where I taught from 1970 to 1975. I will join the grads for some activities on Saturday, and then celebrate Mass for them on Sunday morning at St. Mary's Church in downtown Ft. Wayne. Hopefully the weather will cooperate and all will have a good time.

A representative from Oldenburg Academy will make a presentation at the end of all our Masses this weekend to explain the benefits of attending the Academy. Please give them your attention.

Have a Blessed and Holy Twenty Ninth Week in Ordinary Time Fr. Carl

Engaging the Christic in a World of Chaos with Ilia Delio, D.S.F, Ph.D, Center for Christogenesis; Researcher, Author

Saturday, November 19, 2022

Twentieth century science ushered in a new understanding of cosmos, matter and the way human life progresses through stages of complexity and consciousness. In this workshop, we will explore some of the key insights of science and examine their implications for a new understanding of Christ in evolution. Drawing on the insights of Teilhard, the notion of Christogenesis will be illuminated as the emergence of God, the significance of human life in the completion of God, and the complexifying divine-human relationship as the rise of the Christic.

HELPFUL PRAYER

Billy had been misbehaving and was sent to his room. After a while he emerged and informed his mother that he had thought it over and then said a prayer. "Fine," said the pleased mother. "If you ask God to help you not misbehave, He will help you." "Oh, I didn't ask Him to help me not misbehave," said Johnny. "I asked Him to help you put up with me."

BULLETIN BLOOPERS

- ◆ “Pastor is on vacation. Massages can be given to the church secretary.”
- ◆ “Don’t let worry kill you — let the church help.”
- ◆ One Sunday morning, I heard snickering from the pews. Quickly grabbing the bulletin, I found the cause. The sermon title for that day was: "What Makes God Sick: Pastor Joe Smith."

DONATION

Father O'Malley answers the phone. "Hello, is this Father O'Malley?" "It is" "This is the IRS. Can you help us?" "I can." "Do you know a Ted Houlihan?" "I do." "Is he a member of your congregation?" "He is." "Did he donate $10,000 to the church?" "He will."

ROSARIES AS DECORATIONS

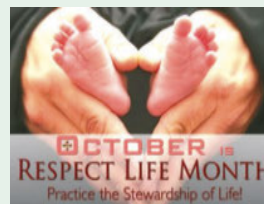

I've seen people hang rosaries over the rear-view mirrors in their cars and a few of them wear them around their necks. Is it OK to do that?

The practice of hanging a rosary or a religious medal off of the rearview mirror of one's car is a fairly popular custom across many cultures. While there is no particular rule approving or condemning this practice, we should also be mindful of the respect and reverence due to religious objects and devotional items (i.e. sacramentals).

An important point to consider would be the reason why one chooses to place a rosary or religious medal in our cars. Is it a reminder of the protection and intercession of Mary and the saints? Does it encourage us to be mindful of God's presence, even in such a mundane task as driving? Is it an outward expression of our more private devotions?

One advantage of having a rosary or religious medal in our cars is that it can also serve as a reminder to pray when we travel, asking for protection for ourselves and for other motorists or commuters. Certainly, invoking the protection and prayers of the saints is a wonderful practice for families, helping to reinforce our belief in the communion of saints and the care and concern we owe to one another.

October is Respect Life Month. Think about how you could be a better steward to ALL Life. Let us take a moment to pray the following prayer for ecology and protecting the life that helps to sustain us as well!

St. Francis is the patron saint of ecology. If he were alive today, perhaps he would write an updated version of the traditional prayer attributed to him. It might look like this.....

Lord, make me a good steward of your creation:

Where there is doubt that anything can be done about our changing climate, let me sow faith in the wisdom you give to our ecological leaders and the changes they say will help the earth.

Where there is apathy, let me sow compassion for my sisters & brothers who have lost their homes & livelihoods in storms, fires, droughts & climate extremes.

Where there is despair among the young, who fear change is not happening fast enough, let me sow hope that change will indeed happen for the good of the planet

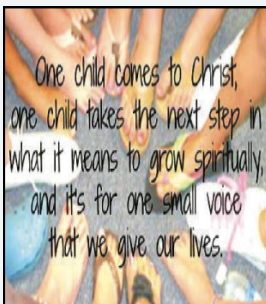

For it is in giving our time, talent & treasure for ecological good, that we will reap the benefits of a beautiful & bountiful creation.

Amen.

SPARKING HOLINESS

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement — all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?" It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "Yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed. There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will. There are those who will, as Paul says, "convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them. There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought. The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are also those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it. During these autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life. With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?" If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter.
