Memorial Day

For us Catholics, Memorial Day isn't just a secular observance. The Catholic Faith brings a distinctly spiritual lens to Memorial Day, viewing it as an act not only of remembering, but also of mercy:

praying for the dead is a spiritual work of mercy, while burying the dead is a corporal act of mercy.

Offering Masses, reciting the Rosary, and visiting graves are acts of love and communion. Our Faith does not glorify war, but it does honor sacrificial love: "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13). And, of course, we commend our loved ones to the mercy of God in hope that they will one day rise in glory.

Memorial Day is also a chance for the Church to speak into issues of war and peace. In a world that still bleeds from conflict, Memorial Day becomes a plea, not just to remember the dead, but to protect the living from future wars. To remember the fallen also means to stand in solidarity with those still bearing the physical, emotional, or spiritual wounds of war. This includes veterans struggling with PTSD, families mourning loved ones, and those who lost faith in the chaos of combat.

Memorial Day is a time to remember not only the soldiers but also the priests who died serving them. Throughout U.S. history, Catholic chaplains have served courageously on the front lines, offering Sacraments, comfort, and last rites to dying soldiers. Some, like Servant of God Father Emil Kapaun, have been recognized for extraordinary heroism and sanctity. Today, the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, continues to support Catholics in the armed forces through chaplains, pastoral care, and evangelization.

Memorial Day in the Catholic tradition is not only about looking back, but also about how we live now: Are we praying for peace? Are we helping veterans and their families? Are we advocating for just policies that protect human life and dignity?

Memorial Day is more than a long weekend. In the Catholic worldview, it's a sacred invitation: to honor the dead, pray for peace, and recommit to love that protects, serves, and sacrifices.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."

Come and See Event

Tues., May 26th

St. Michael Church - Brookville

All four events will be 6:30-8:30 p.m. Canon law indicates that men must have reached the age of 35 by their ordination. In the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, we invite men to enter formation who will be no older than 65 years when they are ordained. Formation is a five-year process. Wives are welcome and encouraged to attend the "Come and See" event as well. These events are not required but could be helpful in the discernment process. For more information, please contact Deacon John Jacobi - jjacobi@archdindy.org - 812-946-0873.
