Holy Family Parish

Congratulations, Walker Allen, Isla Jane, and Jettson Bo!

We had three Baptisms last weekend! Walker Allen, son of Michael and Sidney Kreuzman, was baptized at the 5:30 Mass. Isla Jane, daughter of Ryan and Christina Paul, and Jettson Bo, son of Justin and Shannon Paul, were baptized at the 10:00 Mass. Let's all welcome our brothers and sisters in Christ – Walker Allen, Isla Jane, and Jettson Bo – to the household of God. Alleluia!

Listening Session Regarding Saturday Evening Mass Time

Back in October we asked everyone to give us their preference regarding the time of the Saturday evening anticipated Mass: Do you want it to stay at 5:30 or change it to 4:30? While the overall preference was to change to the earlier time, the preference was not overwhelmingly high. I also received notes from a few people who expressed reasons to keep the time at 5:30. After discussing the matter with the parish council, we have decided that it would be a good idea to hold a listening session to learn reasons for and against changing the time and also the strength of preference (some people may have a preference for a certain time, but won't care too much if it changes or stays the same, while others may care a lot).

So: if you prefer one time to another, we invite you to a listening session on Tuesday, February 25, 7:00-8:00pm in the cafeteria. We ask you to speak for or against one of three options: to keep the time as it is, to change the time, or maybe to have Mass earlier in the winter months and keep it later for the summer months.

We really want to hear from the members of the parish about this matter, so if the Mass time on Saturday is an important question for you, please come to the listening session so that together we can decide what we want to do.

Please Pray for Ronald Abplanalp, Jerry Schene and Frank Clark

Ronald

Jerry

On Tuesday, January 28, our brother Ronald Abplanalp was laid to rest at St. Louis Cemetery after a Mass of Christian Burial at Holy Family Church.

On Wednesday, January 29, our brother Jerry Schene was laid to rest at St. Maurice Cemetery, in Napoleon, after a Mass of Christian Burial at Holy Family Church.

On Saturday, February 1, our brother Frank Clark was laid to rest at St. Louis Cemetery after a Mass of Christian Burial at Holy Family Church. Please take a moment to pray for Ronald, Jerry, and Frank: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Please pray also that the Lord will console their families and friends who will miss them.

Frank

- Fr. John

We would like to express our appreciation to all of you for your thoughts and prayers for our mom, Anna Mae Raver, and our family during this difficult time. We want to especially thank Fr. John for the beautiful funeral Mass and homily, the Bereavement Committee for the delicious meal, and the Caring Committee for thinking of us.

THE THOUGHTS OF MANY HEARTS

Mini Reflection: The oldest trick of the devil is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It’s not hard for him to do — there are so many other things we could be doing. So, do we have the courage to look to our own hearts, to come face to face with our own choices, our own true selves?

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God’s promise to all people. But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way “the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” Perhaps you’re like me. Perhaps you don’t enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don’t like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don’t enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be. It’s exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It’s not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation and the election. Stressing about my kid’s dance recital and next week’s busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to, when my life on Earth has come to its close? It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do.

Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart? - By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

FORMED® PICK OF THE WEEK

FORMED OF THE WEEK: The Bible & Baptism - In this 6-episode book study, Dr. John Sehorn & Fr. Isaac Morales, OP, discuss Fr. Isaac's book The Bible & Baptism: the Fountain of Salvation. You will learn about the relevance of the Old Testament to the Christian Sacrament of Baptism, the significance of Jesus's own Baptism at the hands of John the Baptist, and the profound connection between baptism and Jesus's death and resurrection. Dr. Sehorn and Fr. Isaac also reflect on how Catholics can more fully embrace the gift of their own Baptisms and speak of that gift to others.
