A Franciscan Parish for 159 years! ~ June 29, 2025 ~ The Solemnity of Sts Peter & Paul

Holy Family Parish

"Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" (Matthew 16:13)

Today's Feast of Saints Peter and Paul sets before us the question that Jesus poses to his disciples in the Gospel: "Who do you say that I am?" This is the essential and most important question of all: Who is Jesus for me? Who is Jesus in my life?

Peter responded to Jesus' question with a fine profession of faith: "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (Mt 16:16). It was only after the experience of following the Lord for some time that Peter was able to reach the spiritual maturity that brought him, by pure grace, to so clear a profession of faith. Peter left everything behind to follow the Lord, without demanding any kind of guarantee beforehand. He was to learn everything day by day, as a follower of Jesus, walking in his footsteps. Peter tells us that it is only by following the Lord that we come to know him each day, only by becoming his disciples and listening to his words that we become his friends and experience his transforming love. Many other things can be postponed in life, but not following Jesus; where he is concerned, we cannot hesitate or come up with excuses.

If the word to describe Peter's answer was follow, for Paul it is proclaim, to preach the Gospel. For Paul too, everything began with grace, with his encounter with the Lord on the road to Damascus. Paul discovered in Jesus the fulfilment of the mystery of salvation. In comparison with the sublime knowledge of Christ, he came to regard all his former human and religious securities as "rubbish" (Philippians 3:7-8). Paul then devoted his life to preaching Jesus Christ. The more he preached the Gospel, the more he grew in the knowledge of Jesus. By preaching the Word to others, he was able to peer more deeply into the depths of God's mystery. Paul tells us that our answer to the question – "Who is Jesus for me?" – is not a privatized piety that leaves us peaceful and unconcerned about bringing the Gospel to others. The Apostle teaches us that we grow in faith and in knowledge of the mystery of Christ when we preach and bear witness to him before others. This is always the case: whenever we evangelize, we are ourselves evangelized. The word that we bring to others comes back to us, for however much we give to others, we ourselves receive much more.

Peter and Paul answered that essential question in life – "Who is Jesus for me?" – by following him as his disciples and by proclaiming the Gospel. It is good for us to grow as a Church in the same way, by following the Lord, constantly and humbly seeking him out. It is good for us to become a Church that is also outgoing, finding joy in preaching the Gospel before the world and opening people's hearts to the presence of God. Bringing the Lord Jesus everywhere, with humility and joy.

Corpus Christi 179!

Thanks to everyone who helped with our Corpus Christi procession this year: servers, flower girls, water bearers, the Knights, the shooters, Fr. EJ and Fr. Ed, the choir, everybody who made the luncheon, Mary Gehring (great job!), the canopy bearers, and everybody else I'm sure I forgot (but the Lord will remember). What a tribute to Jesus! May He continue to bless our lovely town of Oldenburg!
