Fr. Carl's Thoughts and Reflections

Third Sunday of Advent, December 17, 2023

This Third Sunday of Advent is called "Gaudete Sunday" because the theme is to be joyful and rejoice as we approach the birth of Jesus. Our first reading is again from the Prophet Isaiah, Chapter 61. Isaiah reflects on his call from the Lord to bring "glad tidings to the poor" and to "proclaim liberty to captives." Isaiah rejoices that the Lord has chosen him for this ministry, and compares it to being clothed with festal garments and jewels. He is sure that God will bring justice and praise to all the nations. St. Paul's letter to the Thessalonians also calls for rejoicing and giving thanks for Christ Jesus. The people are to cherish prophecies and to avoid all evil as they await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful and will bring about what He promised.

The Gospel passage from St. John is all about John the Baptist. He was sent by God to testify to Jesus the Light. John admitted that he was not the Christ, nor Elijah, but came to prepare the way for the Lord. He said he is the "voice of one crying in the desert" to prepare the way of the Lord. Some Pharisees asked John why he was baptizing if he was not Elijah or the Messiah. He said he was just baptizing with water, and was not worthy even to untie the sandal strap of the one coming after him. So John is very clear about his call and his ministry. As we await the birth of our Savior, are we as clear about our roles as believers in Jesus our Messiah? Are we preparing the way for Jesus to come into our world bringing joy and light and peace? Are we joyful because Jesus has come and is with us, Emmanuel, "God with us"?

Congratulations to all the members of our RCIA program who celebrated the Rite of Acceptance and the Rite of Welcoming at the 10 AM Mass last weekend. They are now committed to fully joining our Church. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they continue to grow in their faith and knowledge of our Catholic Church.

We also celebrated and blessed our Catechists at our Teacher Appreciation service last weekend. We appreciate your commitment to your ministry as catechists in our Religious Education Program. May our Loving Savior continue to bless you!

I hope you all took advantage of our Parish Penance Service on the evening of December 14, or visited other Penance Services in nearby parishes. Receiving the Sacrament of Penance is one of the special ways of preparing for Jesus' birth. We will also have the Anointing of the Sick at all the Masses this weekend as we look forward to this last week of Advent.

Have a Blessed Third Week of Advent!

Fr. Carl
